IN MEMORIAM

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

1917 - 1963

" . . . and the glow from that fire can truly light the world."

(Inaugural Address, Jan. 20, 1961)

5/64 H. S. of Commerce B.

Miss Helen E. Rankin

A Dedication

Miss Rankin has rendered to the High School of Commerce over the years a service the value of which cannot be measured! She has been a splendid teacher, an inspiring leader, and an unusual exemplar of "Beauty is truth, truth beauty; that is all Ye know on earth, and all ye need to know."

Her aim was high and her vision broad, and she made great goals attainable for those fortunate enough to have come under her aegis. We miss this personification of the Oxford scholar who "would gladly learn and gladly teach."

We proudly dedicate CADUCEUS 1964 to Miss Helen E. Rankin, college preparatory English teacher for thirty-nine years.

The jolly chap entering from the right is the "Caduceus Cherub," for many years the mascot of the excellent yearbooks produced by Miss Rankin's students.

Foreword

"The growth of the mind through knowledge is like that of a tree through seasons, both maturing, realizing a new fruit."

*I once had an apple,
a very shiny apple.
I gave it to my teacher,
a very handsome teacher.
I once took a test,
a very hard test.
I waited with patience,
a very confident patience.*

*I once flunked a test,
a very stupid test.
I once stole an apple,
a very dull apple.
I stole it from my teacher,
a very typical teacher.*

School Evaluation

features fall semester. Subject of a week of thorough study by a visiting team of experienced teachers, Commerce receives commendations and recommendations.

Dr. Clarence Chatto, chairman of the high school evaluation program conducted by the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, is a former teacher at Commerce, where he now has his office in Room 205. The Commerce students who assist in the heavy clerical work which evaluations entail are Linda Berg, Carol Hill, and Dorna Baillieul.

MRS. HELEN BENOIT

MRS. BARBARA ELLIS

MISS MILDRED POWERS

MISS MARY REARDEN

Service Personnel

The lunchroom personnel, in charge of preparing and serving the school lunches, are, FIRST ROW: Mrs. Mary A. Connolly, Mrs. Gertrude Odato, Mrs. Francine T. Anderson. SECOND ROW: Mrs. Louise Brown, Mrs. Delores Regis, and Mrs. Bernadette Scully.

Our school matrons. Standing is Mrs. Bridgette Tessier. Seated are Miss Sarah Long and Mrs. Margaret Fenton.

"Say ah." MRS. CATHERINE CROKEN, our school nurse, is caught in her daily routine.

Classes

*Class is a time for many things:
For scribbling notes and cleaning class rings,
For trying to guess what the weather will be,
And whether you can get a date by three.*

*It's a time of peace, of meditation,
Of appeasing ever-increasing starvation.
As the passing bell hits high "C"
What did you say the homework will be?*

Writing a composition for her junior college prep. English class, Margaret Kestler pauses to think of her next sentence. In her class, composition work makes up a major portion of the grade received on report cards.

English

is essential for all Commerce students, whether they are planning to enter college or the business world.

Already extremely popular with college prep. students is the after school English class held in the library Tuesday afternoons under the direction of Mr. Grant. The class allows students to gain an added insight into the different types of literature studied in the English class. Attendance is voluntary.

Jane Skdwron delivers an oral report in a college English class. Under the direction of Mr. Grant, the college English teacher, oral reports are used to give students experience in talking before a group and to teach them poise.

French and Spanish

enrich our knowledge and understanding of other people and their customs.

Darrell Page pronounces French expressions with the aid of Mr. Rioux, our new French teacher.

Leila McMenamin, Margaret Rourke, and Marjorie Podmore try on Panamanian clothes during a Spanish class. Besides the language, Spanish students also study the people and customs of Spanish speaking countries.

"Keep counting," says Daniel Mangan to Nancy Noffke as she attempts to count on an adjustable Abacus used many years ago by the Chinese.

"You see, class," demonstrates Carol Hill, "Conic Sections show that the intersection of a plane passing through a cone at a certain angle is an ellipse. Is that clear?"

Sergio Tigera stares deeply into the photometer while Suzanne Guertin adjusts mysterious light source of unknown candlepower, and Anna Woodward awaits patiently for the final results.

Mathematics and

Sara Gerber looks for a smile of confidence from Anthony Sales, Eric Pohl, Mary Regan before beginning the experiment to determine the Empirical Formula of a Compound.

Physical Science

courses, offered to all Commerce students, are required for C. P.'s Through them, the students become aware of the physical world around them, with all its angles, figures, chemicals, living creatures.

"Is that what's in the water we drink?" asks Robert Gentles as he studies a slide of amoeba through the microscope.

Social Studies

acquaint Commerce students with our legal structure and the world's famous men, places, and events.

"See," says Laura Dastoli as she points to the ammendment in the constitution that proves her point. Michael Rooke and Paul Quinlan are quietly standing by.

"And the Missouri River . . .," continues Antoniette Orszulak (right) as she gives the oral talk which was prepared by her group. Suzanne Masse points to the topic of their discussion on the map, and Vivian Hayes is waiting to answer questions.

Art and Music

are electives that provide an opportunity for students to express themselves through sight and sound.

"Do you think the picture's straight?" asks James Ashley as he and Sandra Gebbie adjust one of the pictures for the art display case.

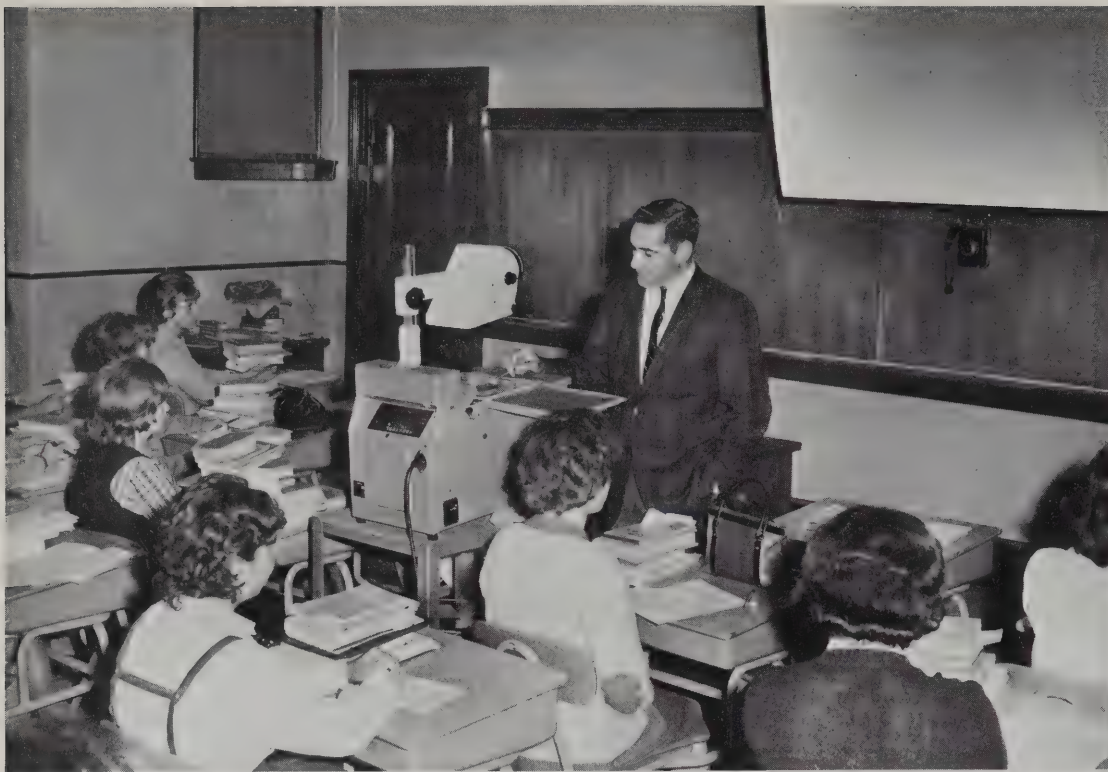

"Ohhh," dreams Arlene DeMars, "It's so hard to sketch the fall scenery as I see it."

Our high school band, hard at work, is practicing for an upcoming assembly.

Business

*tries new course
Processing. Ex
E.D.P. will be progressive*

Nancy Willette, Barbara Strain, Margaret Morin, Fredi Kravitz, Carla Kinney, and Carol Frattesi watch Mr. Alleva use the overhead projector, used to aid students understand the fundamentals of bookkeeping by seeing them done before their eyes.

Kathleen Sokolowski does her push-pulls and ovals: a penmanship exercise to improve the writer's co-ordination.

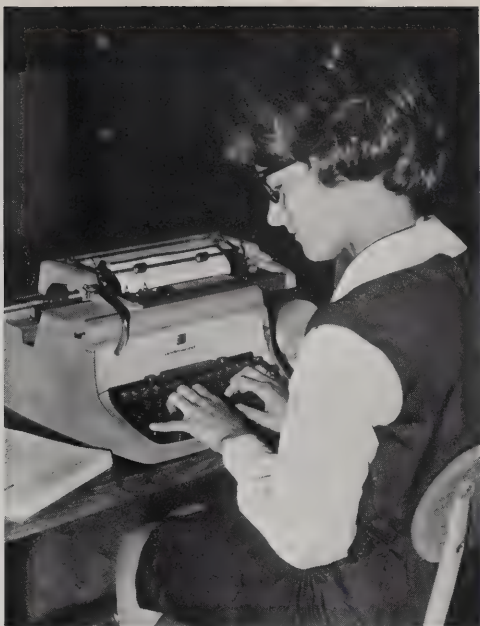

Linda Kadzik, Debrah Malachowski, Teresa Simpson, Judith Weiss, Betty Soderstrom, Ruth Ann White, and Marilyn Wise listen to Miss Conway dictate a letter. When the students receive their transcripts, they correct them while listening to the recorder play back the exact words of Miss Conway. This way the students know whether Miss Conway made a mistake or they made one.

Department

*in Electronic Data
perimental this year,
added to department's standard program.*

Linda Meisner practices typing in her Type II class. This skill is very useful to students either entering college or the business world.

The National Office Manager's Association sponsors four tests throughout the year for interested Commerce students; two in spelling and two in mathematics. Certificates are awarded to students who achieve excellence in one or more tests.

Mr. Edwin Luippold, Director of the Data Processing at the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., explains the operation of a plug board to Mary Miller and Ronald Rossini. The Data Processing course, in its first year at Commerce, teaches students the fundamentals of the science of computers.

Office Practice

is a combination of skills in Machine Calculating, Duplicating, and Filing.

Sandi Keyes files miniature letters of various colors by using the Variadex system of alphabetic filing, in which the second letter of the first unit determines the color to be used.

Joan Pettit is giving instructions on how to use the Marchant Electric Rotary Calculator to James Gallivan and Mary Regan in Mr. Jones's Machine Calculation class.

(Left), Looking over Ronald Rossini's shoulder, we find him working on a mimeoscope attempting to make a reproduction of a post card in preparation of a mimeograph stencil. The mimeoscope is a modern version of tracing a picture by holding it up to a window pane. (Above) Running off a completed stencil is Marion Nickelson.

Home Economics

prepares girls in sewing and cooking for tomorrow's home making.

Sandra Malouin adds the finishing touch to the hem of her suede suit.

Annamarie Caliento, Betty Mayweathers, Terry Tetreault, and Judith Lower are mixing the ingredients for popovers in Miss Clancy's Foods I class.

The popovers are golden brown as they come out of the oven after being baked for 25 minutes at 450 degrees.

Seniors

Slaying dragons
Or driving beer wagons,
The seniors will make their way.

Wearing red sandals
Or dining by candles,
The seniors will have their say.

Living in castles
Or wearing gold tassels,
The seniors will have their day.

Freshmen

*Your teachers gather around you
With threats and menacing looks.
The juniors aren't so quiet;
They simply throw their books.
The seniors always tell you
You're acting like a fool.
But you aren't completely wrong:
You picked the perfect school.*

Betty Jones proudly displays an issue of the Commerce newspaper which is distributed to G.O. members each month.

Commerce,

*our monthly paper, records
newsworthy school events throughout the school year.*

"According to this paper . . .," comments Susan Plass as she points to an article in a previous issue of the Commerce newspaper. The staff leaders of this year's newspaper are (left to right): Susan Plass, page 4 editor; Jean Champagne, page 3 editor; Kathleen Southworth, page 2 editor; Susan Lowell, Editor-in-Chief; Cynthia Rusby, managing editor; Dorna Baillieul, page 1 editor; and Thomas Burke, sports reporter.

Robert Allis, Cynthia Rusby, and Mrs. Conchieri watch as Lorraine Senecal and Danny Eaton total some of the G.O. accounts. This is one of the many tasks of the G.O. Auditors in Room 113.

Every year the General Organization holds an important position in financing school activities. With the co-operation of the student body, it works to promote and maintain school spirit.

At the annual G.O. Assembly, Danny Eaton seems puzzled by a mysterious voter.

Norm Ross may be tall, but not tall enough to hide Arthur Duncan, who portrays a non-G.O. member trying to sneak into a basketball game.

G.O. Assemblies

were introduced this year to replace the usual dance held at the end of the G. O. drive. The first of these assemblies brought the Heatherstones and the Scotchmen of Springfield College.

The Heatherstones, first on the program of assemblies, sang selections which included "Breezing Along," "Sentimental Journey" and "Wade In De Water."

The Scotchmen, the Heatherstone's brother act, entertained with "Come Go With Me," "Casey's Coffin," and "Let Us Gather By The River."

Drama Club

offers an education in many phases of the theater including make-up, scenery, set direction, and, of course, acting. The Drama Club produced two one-act plays this year, "The Ghost of a Show" and "More Perfect Union."

Selecting one of the plays to be presented are John Gaffney, adviser, and Lorraine Senecal, president of the Drama Club.

Mr. Thomas Kenefick, director of public services in our school system and a former principal of Chestnut Junior High School, was the guest speaker at the National Education Week Assembly, November 15. Here he congratulates the students who participated in the program: Terry Simpson, Carol Scagliarini, Marjorie Jackson, and Sharon Wheeler.

Under the direction of Mr. Nickerson, the choir and chorus presents a moving and enjoyable selection of Christmas carols at the 1963 Christmas Assembly, the finest gathering of the school year.

Drucilla Usher, captain of the cheerleaders, presents Mr. Clifford Wells, Director of the Basketball Hall of Fame, with a check for $100, the amount needed for Commerce's membership in the organization. Thanks to the support given by the student body and the faculty, the cheerleaders project of selling shakers to raise the necessary money.

The pretty and lively Commerce cheerleaders build up school enthusiasm in a rally before that memorable second game with Cathedral. Hold on a minute! There's something fishy going on around here.

Assemblies,
frequent and varied, provide refreshing interludes from the regular academic schedule of classes.

Robert Davis, captain of the junior varsity football squad, presents Coach Meacham with a gift to show the team's appreciation for his time spent with the boys.

Thanksgiving and mourning.. A message of inspiration is delivered by our Thanksgiving Assembly guest speaker, the Reverend James J. McKenna, following a brief but moving memorial to our late President.

FRESHIE DAY

Who needs a beauty parlor—with experts like Steven Yacovone, John Magnani, Thomas Gamelli, and Peter O'Keefe?

Flash!! A new twist in hair teasing is demonstrated by Mary Jo Plass, Constance Vezina, Barbara Baldyga, and Beverly DeMusis.

Aloha! Swivel hips are exhibited by John Berti and Rosemary Joseph.

*As this infamous day begins,
The freshmen are on needles and pins.
The seniors wear a smirky smile:
A freshman is led down the aisle.*

*A question is placed,
The truth to be faced;
If it doesn't make sense —
A consequence.*

*A hula dance,
A ballet prance;
Some hair is teased
And the seniors are appeased.*

Ain't love grand! Why not ask Jane Berrouard and Steven Simpson.

Among the seniors amused by this game of musical mattress are Danny Eaton, Norman Ross, and Donna Sanderson.

Linda Simmons, graceful and lithe, in her ballet.

The Big Top '63

Student Patrols and Office Aides

are responsible school citizens who maintain order and efficient communications.

Trading Post

the school store, offers students a variety of supplies, including book covers, sweatshirts, pens, and dictionaries.

ABOVE: Dorna Baillieul, Christine Sweeney, and Elaine Charko, sales clerks at the Commerce Trading Post, display for Marion Nickelson a sweatshirt with the school emblem.

Lunchroom Aides

help service 1600 hungry people. Girls cashier and sell milk; boys clean up.

The Lunchroom Aides. SEATED: Carla Kinney, Lynn Mercolino, Antonetta Mango, Carol Maharne, Linda Daigneau, and Diane Helgevold. STANDING: John Siraco, Elton Barrows, Freddy Hill, Barry Cantor, Earl Bryant, and Mike Quinlan.

Audio-Visual Aides Nick Creanza, Robert Jorgenson, and Martin Daley roll a film into the projector, preparing to show it in a classroom.

Stage Crew members Gary Anderson and Barry Muldrew, in charge of all lights and sound effects, are shown preparing for an assembly.

Audio-Visual Aides and Stage Crew Chess Club

The Chess Club is only about a year old, but it has attracted an enthusiastic group of learners. Here, Bruce Peterson and Dave Tempkin offer their suggestions to Patricia Willis, Thelma Walter, Lorraine Worrell, Sue Stevens, and Linda Chisholm.

T.B. Typing

Spotlight on Youth

Student Council

Talking to his battery, Coach Wright gives valuable information to his pitcher, Jay Jeffes, while catcher Floyd Narcisse looks on.

Michael Fiore, Richard Ardolino and Thomas O'Connor close in on a Technical opponent in an attempt to steal the ball.

Booters Post 4 Wins

In his first year as soccer mentor, Coach David Cook compiled a record of 4 wins and 9 losses. Thus the Raiders definitely improved over the last few seasons. David Plant was an All-City selection for half back of the first team, and Bob Rosso made inside half back of the second team.

The Commerce forwards move downfield in an attempt to score.

Paul Deschenes shows the form that made him the envy of the Commerce Capers kick line. Paul uses the form to execute a long pass to the Commerce forwards.

Ed Miloz, Commerce goalie, makes the save after the ball gets by Paul Deschenes and before Barry LaRiviere can assist him.

Football Raiders 3-3

Commerce is on the offensive as George Murray gains some yardage during the Preview at Trade Field.

Best Record Since Revival

This year, the Raiders attained their best football record since the game was reinstated at Commerce in 1956.

Coach Troy gives the football to Henry Santaniello while Chuck Connors (17) and team captain Eric Pohl (27) look on.

During the September Preview, Commerce shows the defensive form that helped them attain their 3-3 record.

Eric Pohl (27) puts the stop on a Classical player as Marion Streeter charges in to assist in the tackle. Classical won 28-14.

Commerce's other guard, Milton Jones, is sometimes overlooked by the opposition. Here he is dribbling around the back court looking for an opening in the St. Joseph defense.

Steve Pevzner and Freddie Hill outjump a St. Joseph player. Their strength on the boards enabled Commerce to win many of its tight games.

14-7 Raiders Set Western Mass. Record

The Raiders broke a Western Mass. scoring record this season with a 122-81 romp over St. Stephens. With a 14-6 record going into the Western Mass. Tournament, Commerce lost a squeaker to David Prouty in the quarter-finals. The Raiders closed the season with a 14-7 record after playing what the newspapers termed the best game ever played in the history of the Western Mass. Tournament.

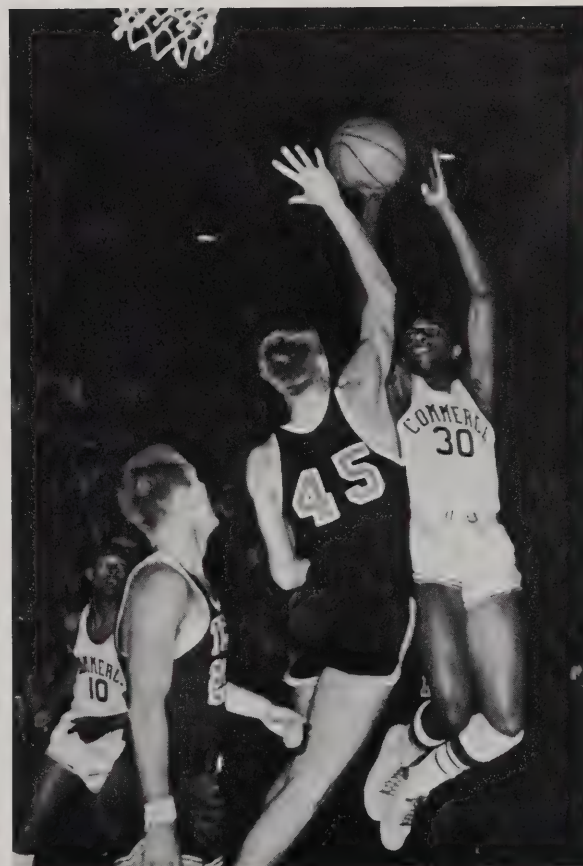

Team captain Henry Payne confers with Raider coach John Troy. Henry is perhaps the best player in the history of Commerce. He scored 629 points this past campaign to set a city record. His 29.9 points per game average is another city record. He also set a Western Mass. record by scoring 64 points in Commerce's romp over St. Stephens. Henry also holds two Western Mass. Tournament records: most points scored in one half—33, and the best career average in the championship event—32.7.

Raider Grapplers 4-2

The mat men lost only to Tech and Cathedral during this year's city campaign while sweeping Trade and Classical.

Philip Ballard of Commerce is on the bottom of the referee's position while Ben Aleks of Cathedral has the advantage. The positions change every period.

John Carr of Classical and Robert Sorcinelli of Commerce are locked in a closed position as each one tries to overpower the other in this City Championship Match.

Streeter, Captain, Robert Sorcinelli, Alan Cassanelli, Edward Lionetta, Walter Augustowski, Joseph Piogga, Rockwood Greene.

The 1964 Varsity Bowling Team. KNEELING: Martin Brick, 98.7; Russell Hughes, 99.0; Barry Muldrew, 101.0. STANDING: Captain Roger Bouchard, 97.8; Coach Raymond Ellison; and William Blais, 100.7.

Barry Muldrew uses the old "body English" to try to knock down the pins.

Candlepin Bowlers Take City Championship

The Commerce bowling squad broke a school record by bowling 1619 in the second round playoff against Trade. After finishing fourth in the first round, a fine team effort enabled the boys to lead the league in the second round.

Backed by the coaches, Mr. Ellison and Mr. Jermakian, Roger Bouchard, captain of the Commerce squad, and Nick Andros, captain of the Classical bowlers, shake hands before a league game. Although Classical had beaten Commerce in the first round, Commerce swept the second match 8-0.

Rusty Hughes, showing a perfectly relaxed form, has a look of confidence as he rolls his ball down the alley, sure that it will hook into the head pin for a possible strike or spare leave.

The Junior Varsity Bowling Team: Michael Gladkowski, Arthur Duncan, Paul Couchesne, John Bell, Jerry Adams, and Mr. Ellison.

Gymnastics

Ronald Connor participates in the weight lifting instruction given in gym classes.

During a gym class dealing with the proper use of apparatus, Stephn Czochra vaults over the buck. It looks easy!

Drill Team

We won a trophy! Betty Jones, Sue Plass, and Ruth Ann White are proud of the trophy won by the Drill Team in the 1963 Columbus Day parade.

This is just one of the many "wheeling" performances put on by the girls at the Field House this past season.

Magnificent! was the job done by our Cheerleaders this past year. KNEELING: Laurie Vezina, Doris Cardin, Gloria Siniscalchi, Dianna DiStefano, Alice Senecal, Harriet Zerwitz. STANDING: Debbie Armstrong, Penny Zelinsky, Druscilla Usher, Captain; Barbara Raschi, Teresa Pietroniro.

Cheerleaders

School spirit? The cheerleaders always show plenty of it.

Girls' Outdoor Athletics

take advantage of fine spring and fall weather.

Volleyball. Enjoying afternoon instruction from Miss Greenleaf on the fundamentals of serving are Gail Arndt, Debbie Armstrong, Faith Corey, Margaret Consolini, and Sue Plass.

Girls' Indoor Activities

maintain physical fitness through varied sports.

Basketball, always popular in the winter gym program, demands competition. Here Hilda Davis takes a shot in a game against Classical.

Badminton attracts Susan Nowakowski, Lorraine Worrell, Fredi Kravitz, Margaret Kestler, and Jo-Ann Caulton.

Apparatus work is fun. Here Debbie Armstrong demonstrates the crucifix.

Acknowledgments

The Editorial Staff and its adviser, Mr. Ellison, wish to thank

Miss McCleary and her student staff, Donna Sanderson, Sandra Keyes, Marion Nickelson, and Joyce Dembroski, for making the appointments and producing our photographs.

Mr. Jones, our photographer, for his usual outstanding job.

Miss Henderson and her senior assistants, Carolyn Jones, Angela Ferraro, and Anne Marie Mastrangelo, for their competent handling of the infinite detail involved in senior portrait arrangements.

Lorraine Senecal and Linda Simmons for their cartoon work.

Steve Raichelson for the candid photos which enliven much of the book.

Miss Elizabeth Connell and Mr. Penna for the use of their typing facilities.

Mr. Alminas and his Business Staff for their hard work in financing and distributing this book.

The administration and the faculty whom we interrupted quite frequently. They have been patient and helpful.

Mr. Jack Brown of T. O'Toole and Sons for his practical advice in the production of the book.

Mr. Ed Carlson of the Loring Studios for his cooperation in several last-minute situations.

WITHOUT BREAKING STRIDE,

why not graduate from high school to the Telephone Company? You'll love the friendly young people who'll work with you, and the many social activities that make your work so pleasant and rewarding.

OPPORTUNITY IS EXCELLENT

and your ability will be recognized. Your starting salary should climb with regular increases. And, of course, Company benefits, security, and regular advancement are well-known reasons why working for the Telephone Company is so attractive to graduates.

TELEPHONE JOBS ARE IMPORTANT,

vital to the effective communications of the community, the nation, and the world. When you take your place as a respected member of the telephone community, we'll train you, on full salary, even without previous job experience.

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
